

CONTENTS

1. The evolving attitudes towards tradition .....	7
2. Conservation or progress? .....	12
3. The roots of theatre traditions.....	17
4. From ritual to entertainment .....	21
5. The clown character – origins.....	24
6. The magician illusionist, ventriloquist, and puppeteer .....	31
7. The central character .....	34
8. The origin of the “national” character in the European puppet theatre.....	38
9. Current events inserted within the traditional framework.....	44
10. The tradition of puppet theatre and the modern art .....	47
11. Attempts to revive the Romanian traditional puppet theatre.....	49
12. Nomad puppeteers.....	54
13. Traditional puppeteers in Romania .....	59
14. The traditional puppet theatre of Moldova .....	69
15. The Vasilache and Mărioara play .....	74
16. Parody in French fairground theatre of the baroque period.....	85
17. Aspects of parody in puppet theatre in Romanian culture. Cultural interferences .....	88
18. The origins of puppet theatre performances on the theme of Faust.....	92
19. The pamphlet in Romanian puppet theatre .....	95
20. Personal contribution to the continuation of the tradition. The show Vasilache and Mărioara , in the country and abroad .....	103
20.1. Traditional theatre – semester exam at A.T.F. (Academy of Theatre and Film) – Bucharest, 1995.....	104
20.2. From exam to performance. From classes to the audience, 1995.....	106
20.3. Vasilache and Mărioara on tour in Denmark, 1998.....	107
20.4. Vasilache at Gulliver Theatre, Galați, 1999 .....	108
20.5. Vasilache and Mărioara at Lyon (France), 2002.....	109
20.6. Vasilache , again at the Faculty.....	111
20.7. The theatre performance and the entertainment market.....	112
20.8. Traditional performance and digital technologies. A compromise? .....	114
20.9. Vasilache at Loughborough University, England .....	115
20.10. Vasilache during the pandemic .....	119
20.11. Vasilache alone at Străzi Dechise in Bucharest .....	120
Bibliography.....	123