

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction | 7 |
| CHAPTER I | |
| THEATRE EMPLOYED TO COMBAT THE SOCIAL EXCLUSION PHENOMENON | 13 |
| Human Interaction. Psychological and Social Aspects | |
| The Social Nature of the Human Being..... | 15 |
| Duality of the Human Being..... | 22 |
| Mechanisms Triggering Social Exclusion and Discrimination | |
| Social Exclusion. Conceptual Delimitation..... | 26 |
| Mechanisms Generating Exclusion on the Social Level..... | 30 |
| Eliminating the Effects of Social Exclusion through Theatre | |
| The Social Role of Theatre. Reflections..... | 44 |
| Theatre Practices Employed to Reduce Social Exclusion..... | 48 |
| CHAPTER II | |
| THEATRE AS A TOOL FOR INCLUSIVE EDUCATION | 58 |
| Creative Skills Fostering Social Inclusion | |
| Creativity – Definitional Perspectives..... | 60 |
| Creativity and Potential Inhibitory Factors..... | 67 |
| On Spontaneity..... | 71 |
| On Imagination..... | 73 |
| Socio-Emotional Competencies to Support Social Inclusion | |
| Empathy and the Mirror Neuron Theory..... | 77 |
| On Emotions..... | 82 |
| Emotional Intelligence..... | 86 |
| Education and Theatre. Theoretical and Practical Considerations | |
| Perspectives on Education, with Special Reference to the Romanian context..... | 90 |
| Theatre Applied in Education..... | 100 |
| Bibliography | 111 |
| Appendices | 121 |