

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9
First case study: IDENTIFYING JÓZSEF TIMÁR	15
Identification	16
A career marked by bans	24
The first television recording	35
Playing and directing	39
Second case study: EXITING THE STAGE: ÉVA RUTTKAI AND GIZI BAJOR	49
Image and legacy: “Gizi Bajor’s successor”	49
Gizi Bajor exits the stage	53
Self-education	62
“Juliet decides she loves Romeo”	66
The summation of a career	77
Donning the hat	85
Third case study: THE WORDS OF ÁRPÁD ÓDRY	87
Sándor Hevesi and the tradition of discourse on acting	88
“Naturalness”: Ódry’s portrait as seen by his contemporaries	95
On reciting poetry	106
Schools of recitation	112
Lexicon entries	120

Fourth case study: LILI MONORI AT THE KATONA JÓZSEF
THEATRE	127
The partner: the other	130
The text and the message	139
Space and context	154
The direction	163
In Place of an Afterword – On Theatrical Time	171
Productions discussed in this volume	175
Bibliography	179